

Here is a draft English translation of parts of the invitation (translation: STOP THE BOMB)

We are honored to cordially invite you to a further

Fireside Chat with Guest of Honor

Topic: Where is Iran heading?

Wednesday, June 4, 2014 at 6.30 p.m. at the Parliamentary Association, 'Salon Berlin', Friedrich- Ebert-Platz 2, Berlin.

Our guest of honor is:

HE Ali Reza Sheikh Attar,

Ambassador of the Islamic Republic of Iran

With a greeting from Mr. Markus Potzel, legation councilor from the Foreign Office

He will report on the most notable changes in the politics of his country. In August 2013, Hassan Rohani has been elected as the new president. Shortly afterwards, in November 2013 an agreement has been reached in the talks on the Iranian nuclear energy program in Geneva. Do these developments inspire hope for better relations between Iran and the West? Germany and Iran have a long history of good relations that could benefit from a further consolidation.

After the speaker's remarks a discussion is planned. The evening begins with a reception and a dinner. We appreciate your participation.